SWITZERLAND.

LIST OF ARTICLES THE EXPORT OF WHICH IS PROHIBITED.

June 25, 1915.

NOTES.

1. The Federal Council reserves to itself the right to authorise exceptions to the prohibitions of exportation which have been established in respect of the following goods by successive Decrees of the Federal Council.

2. Notwithstanding the prohibition of export, prohibited goods may be sent in transit through Switzerland in sealed wagons.

3. The importation of cereals (wheat, spelt, barley, rye, oats, maize), of the products resulting from the grinding thereof, including forage meal and bran, as also of all concentrated forage necessary for the feeding of cattle, is reserved exclusively to the Confederation. The re-exportation of such imported products is absolutely prohibited. [Decree of January 7, 1915.]

4. The numbers quoted below are those of the Swiss Customs Tariff. When a number is quoted without qualification all goods classified under that Tariff number are included within the scope of the prohibition. On the other hand, the prefixing of "ex" to a Tariff number indicates that only the articles specially mentioned fall within the scope of the prohibition, other articles classified under the Tariff number being allowed to be exported.

ex 974*b*	Acetanilide (antifebrine).*
ex 1051	Acetic acid, crude or purified, having an empyreumatic odour.
	Acetic acid, other, containing more than 12 per cent. of acetic acid. (See under Vinegar.)
ex 1051	Acetone.
